Fall Jersey Journal Now Online — Free Access for 30 Days

The fall issue of the Jersey Journal is now online and available for everyone to read free for the next 30 days ... but if you want a print version in your hands, you must be a subscriber!

This issue celebrates Jersey youth -- the future of our breed -- and that future is in good hands!

Inside, you'll meet this year's National Jersey Youth Achievement winners, scholarship recipients and youth production contest winners. Their accomplishments, experiences and enthusiasm for the Jersey cow showcase the dedication of the next generation of Jersey breeders.

The issue also features a special roundtable with several Youth Production Contest winners. They share the strategies behind their winning cows, how they manage and develop them, and the stories that made their accomplishments especially meaningful.

Full stories on the Achievement, scholarship and production contest winners can also be found anytime at USJerseyJournal.com.
