

The Single Greatest Jersey Event

Next week Jersey enthusiasts from around the globe will be eagerly watching as The All American Jersey events unfold in Louisville, Ky.

November 7-10, all dairy eyes will be tuned in to the live feeds of the North American International Livestock Exposition, CowBuyer.com, and various social media pages to engage in the greatest Jersey shows and sales. There is not a weekend of Jersey camaraderie anywhere else in the world that showcases the Jersey breed as The All American Jersey events do.

What makes it so special? Perhaps it is the feeling that everyone feels he or she is a part of the show. The exhibitor is excited for the competition. The spectator appreciates the beauty of it all. Jersey youth, our future, are inspired to achieve great things. Consignors smile with the success of their genetics. And each year, familiar faces are found throughout the barns and watching from the stands, making all the new faces feel welcome.

The All American has no peer. No other breed association concentrates as much effort on one promotional event as the American Jersey Cattle Association. And one cannot forget the multitudes of Jersey enthusiasts that have generously donated their time, ideas, energy and yes, dollars to ensure that The All American is a one-of-a-kind event. Thank you to the many sponsors—we couldn't pull this off without your generous support.
