

In Memoriam

Marcia F. Molesworth

Marcia F. (Kepler) Molesworth, Middletown, Md., 63, passed away on February 16, 2020.

She was born to the late William and Frances Kepler.

Marcia retired from the National Institutes of Health as a computer specialist after 40-plus years of service.

She belonged to many organizations and took leading roles in the Middletown Valley 4-H Dairy Club, Maryland Dairy Shrine, Maryland Jersey Cattle Club, Frederick County Dairy Advisory Committee and the Maryland Purebred Dairy Cattle Association, among others. She also was the 4-H dairy cattle superintendent at the Great Frederick Fair for many years.

Marcia was a longtime member of the Harmony Community Lutheran Church, where she formerly sang in the choir.

She lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures: being with friends and family, cooking amazing meals for others and helping anyone in need. She enjoyed time with her adored grandson, Connor, and anticipated meeting her new grandson, Emmett.

Marcia is also survived by longtime partner, Wayne Stiles and the Stiles and Heath families, daughter Heather (Ben) Rudman; siblings Richard (Patti) Kepler and Brenda (Robert) Fezell; a grandson; two nieces, a nephew and a great niece.

Memorials may be made to the Marcia Molesworth Memorial Scholarship Fund, which is being established, c/o Heather Rudman, or the Living Legacy Foundation of Maryland, which supports organ and tissue donation, at www.thellf.org.

Gail Lloyd Berger

Gail Lloyd Berger, Mount Vernon, Ohio, 84, passed away on February 22, 2020.

He was born on July 8, 1935, at home to the late Kenneth and Reba (Chase) Berger. He graduated from Homer High School and served two years in the U.S. Army.

He was a lifelong farmer, milking Jersey cows with his father and brother, Robert, at Berger Jerseys until 2000. The Bergers were active exhibitors at the district show and other shows throughout Ohio.

Gail was a member of the American Jersey Cattle Association and the Ohio Jersey Breeders Association. After a career milking cows, he pursued a passion raising draft ponies at the behest of his niece.

Though he loved his cows, ponies and hauling his Amish boys, he treasured his family above all. His nieces and nephews were truly privileged to have him in their lives.

In addition to his brother and niece, Carol (Stephanie) Crites, he is survived by a nephew, Brett, all of Mount Vernon, and special family friends, Matt and Nikki Swift of Columbus, Ohio.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Mildred (Burrell), and sister-in-law, Bonnie J. (Ranck) Berger.

Memorials may be made to Hospice of Central Ohio, P.O. Box 430, Newark, OH 43058-0430.

Norma Jane (Schanbacher) Moyer

Norma Jane (Schanbacher) Moyer, East Point, Pa., 82, passed away on February 29, 2020, after a brief illness.

The daughter of Carl and Elizabeth (Decker) Schanbacher, she was born July 27, 1937, in Canton, Pa. She graduated from Liberty Joint High School in 1955 and continued her education at Jean Summer's Business School in Elmira. After graduation, she worked for C.A. Bullock, Esc., in Canton.

She married Cecil Moyer on June 13, 1959. True partners in everything, she worked side-by-side with him on the family dairy farm in East Point. She was a member of Pennsylvania Farm Bureau and Southern Tioga FFA Alumni, earning her Honorary Chapter Farmer Degree in 2019.

Norma was a lifetime member of East Point Ebenezer United Methodist Church, where she served as organist and pianist for many years. She was also deeply involved in the workings of the church and community as a member of the Ladies Aide and Pollyanna.

In addition to her husband of 60 years, she is survived by three children, Myrna Palchak (Teko) of Bellefonte, Pa., Laurie Young (Dan Fox) of Muncy, Pa., and Paul (Carolyn) Moyer, Ty-Ly-View Jerseys, Roaring Branch, Pa.; seven grandchildren; a great-grandchild; and four step great-grandchildren; sister-in-law, Dorothy Schanbacher; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by in-laws, Charles and Eleanor Moyer, and a brother, Gordon Schanbacher.

Charles E. "Chuck" Myers

Charles E. "Chuck" Myers, Troy, Ohio, 90, passed away on March 6, 2020, at the Hospice Unit at Upper Valley Medical Center.

He was born to the late Ohmer C. and Mary Elizabeth (McCurdy) Myers on October 5, 1929, in Troy and graduated from Troy High School in 1949.

A longtime dairy cattle breeder, Chuck raised Registered Jerseys for more than 75 years and was active with the dairy industry and show ring even longer. He bred other show winners at Myers Jersey Farm, including JIF Little Minnie, two-time Grand Champion of the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, and PH Jewel, Excellent-96%, Reserve Supreme Champion of World Dairy Expo and Reserve National Grand Champion in 1999.

Chuck was a member of the American Jersey Cattle Association and served on many All American committees, including the committee for an event near and dear to his heart, the National Jersey Jug Futurity. He exhibited cattle in the "Jug" for more than 40 years and was at the halter of the 1961 winner, Golden Etta Beauty. He was chosen as the third recipient of the Max Gordon Memorial Award in 2005, an honor presented at the futurity to honor sportsmanship and integrity in the show ring and promotion of the Jersey cow.

Chuck was a member of the Ohio Jersey Breeders Association for more than 50 years. He served the organization as director, was a member of the sale and show committees and received the Distinguished Service Award in 2005.

He judged cattle at county fairs, district, state, national and international shows and was an active volunteer with 4-H. He also belonged to Cove Springs Grange, Concord Grange, Pamona Grange and Miami County Farm Bureau. He was inducted into the Ohio State Fair Hall of Fame in 1991 and received the Woodrow Nunamaker Memorial Trophy.

Chuck is survived by son, Tom (Alice) Myers of Troy; three daughters, Tawni (Dan) Batdorf of Covington, Ohio, Tammie (Mike) Havenar of Piqua, Ohio, and Tina (David) Stradling of Troy; 12 grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 40 years, Marie Catherine (Roeth) Myers, in 1994 and an infant brother.

Memorials may be made to Hospice of Miami County.
